Charcoal studio is building up an Artist Community Space in Delhi NCR, where creative minds practicing different mediums of art can come together to develop a language of creativity, peace and harmony. Amidst the growing unrest and intolerance around the world, the in-house artists feel the need of creating a platform, where differences in views, opinions perspectives are accepted, discussed upon and celebrated.

Pratibha Sarkar and Armin Alagic-mueller the Art Enthusiast first came up with the idea of opening her living space to artists and art enthusiasts to come and explore. On that note this event was conceptualized and various artists came together with an evening of performance over a cup of tea.

Charcoal studio is creating an Artist Community Space in NCR, where creative minds practicing different mediums of art can come together to develop a language of creativity, peace and harmony. Amidst the growing unrest and intolerance around the world, the in-house artists feel the need of creating a platform, where differences in views, opinions perspectives are accepted, discussed upon and celebrated.

This was one of the few events that were presented and this event was a wind of fresh air in terms of art initiatives, having close proximity to Delhi this city was mostly ignored. With the influx of youths from across India and opening up of various corporate hubs and modern facilities this city is fast turning into an art hub. Citizens of this city had to visit Mandi House or India Habitat Centre to get a dash of art in their life but now with these art initiatives they get a taste of same rich art within city limits.

This studio creation has been welcomed by artist as Pratibha is one of them and the intent of this initiative is to bring everyone together. Apart from her there was other artist who also showcased there art.

Inder Salim, Satadru Sovan, Tapati Chowdhary, Anupam Saikia, Abhimanyu, Portia Roy, Prituj Mondol, Sandip Ghosh and Swati Dayal were few artist who came forward for this event with their piece of art.

All the art work displayed by this artist depicts indigenous thought process of these celebrated artists. Going by the intent of the creators Charcoal Studio promises to be the next art hub where independent artist will benefit a lot and get a platform which big cities hesitate to provide to an upcoming artists.
